

Tassel Wall Hanging of Gratitude

Designed by Chelsea at A Few Loose Threads

CRAFT

Finished Size: Varies

Materials:

- Yarn in rust, mustard, cream, forest green, and brown
- Large Tassel maker (Clover recommended)
- Wooden dowel or stick (18–24" wide)
- Twine or string for hanging
- Scissors
- Mini clothespins
- Cardstock or construction paper for leaves (or precut leaves)
- Pens or markers
- Hole punch (optional)

Instructions

1. Make the Tassels

- Use your tassel maker to create tassels in your chosen colors. Vary lengths slightly for a natural look.

2. Attach Tassels to Dowel

- Tie the tassels onto the dowel in a staggered or symmetrical pattern.

3. Prepare the Leaves

- Cut or use precut paper leaves. Use a hole punch if desired.

4. Add Gratitude Notes

- Invite family or guests to write what they're thankful for on the leaves and clip them to the tassels with mini clothespins.

5. Hang and Display

- Use twine to hang your wall piece. Adjust for balance and spacing.
