If you do not know how to do fdc, here is a tutorial:

<https://www.stitchandhustle.com/foundation-half-double-crochet-stitch-tutorial-and-video>

Alternatively if you do not know fdc, loosely ch 87,

Then dc in 3rd ch from hook, dc across. Total 86 dc including ch 2, fasten off

Count 25 stitches from end and place one stitch marker in 25th st. Repeat on the other side.

Row 2: Begin in 26th st from end on Row 1; ch2 (acts as first dc), dc 35 across (to where you placed your stitch marker). Total 36 dc (including ch 2)

Row 3 - 8: Ch 2 (acts as first dc), dc across to end, turn - Each row total 36 dc (including ch 2)

Row 9: Sl st in next 3 stitches from previous row then 1 sc; 1 hdc, 26 dc; 1 hdc, 1 sc, turn – do NOT go to the end this is your first slant row to give your hat it's peak

Row 10: sl st in next 3 stitches from previous row then 1 sc; 1 hdc, 16 dc; then 1 hdc, 1 sc, turn – do NOT go to the end

Row 11: sl st in next 3 stitches from previous row then 1 sc; 1 hdc, 6 dc; 1 hdc, 1 sc, 1 sl,

Fasten off and cut your yarn leaving a very long tail to weave and attach the sides of the triangle to form your hat.

Turn your hat inside out and whipstitch the back seam joining the 2 sides of your triangle.

Weave in all ends.
